About

Broad Street Ministry is an organization that helps Philadelphians living in deep poverty stabilize their lives through a unique offering of meals and social services. Along with our nutritious meals, guests can benefit from a mailing address, change of clothes, and personal care items. And we partner with other best-in-class nonprofit organizations to offer medical behavioral, health care, legal assistance, and support with housing, public benefits, and personal identification.

Our Approach

Broad Street Ministry employs trauma aware de-escalation tactics to reduce anxiety and prevent the escalation of conflict amongst the guests. On top of employing De-escalation Specialists, whose job is to help mitigate crises, we regularly offer de-escalation refreshers to our entire staff and trainings to partner agencies interested in our practices. The de-escalation model was developed by Geremi James at Broad Street Ministry as an alternative to the surveillance and policing that our guests experience outside of our doors.

Training is led by Geremi James, Director of Clinical Support Services at Broad Street Ministry. Geremi received her Master's in Social Work from Temple University and has been practicing clinical social work in Philadelphia for over 10 years.

Pricing and Inquiries

We offer a sliding scale for organizations based on fiscal year budgets. Please reach out if your organization requires more flexibility in pricing.
